

MEANWHILE

Call for Proposals

Applications should be sent to meanwhile.wgtn@gmail.com

MEANWHILE welcomes artists at all stages of their practice. MEANWHILE is also interested in supporting ambitious projects which may require additional funding by working with successful applicants on funding applications.

We also completely welcome writers, and workshops/off-site/event/performance organisers to respond to this call. We will also take proposals for pop-up events over the course of 2022/23.

Your proposal should include:

- A description of your proposed project, including preferred timeline and dates if applicable. (not exceeding 500 words)
* If the project is financially ambitious and will acquire additional funding, please also include a project budget
- Accompanying imagery for the proposed project, if applicable
- Artist bio for all participants (not exceeding 150 words each)
- 2-3 examples of previous works or a link to a website(s)/online portfolio(s)
- Any supporting material

If your proposal is successful we will be able to provide a $200 artists fee, working with a facilitator to put on the exhibition, installation and curatorial assistance and graphic design for media releases. Exhibitions will run for a 3 week period.

Please email proposals as a single PDF to meanwhile.wgtn@gmail.com, with the subject line 'Open call 2022'. (All) applicants will be informed of outcomes by the end of May 2022. Proposals will be reviewed by the MEANWHILE board.
